AMEND Senate Bill No. 785

House Bill No. 572*

by deleting all language after the caption and by substituting instead the following:

WHEREAS, there has been a proliferation of municipal courts with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction created in the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, this has had an adverse effect on the various courts of general sessions in the State; and

WHEREAS, the creation of such additional courts creates a burden on taxpayers of the several counties by increasing costs of the judicial system; and

WHEREAS, recognizing these problems, the state of Tennessee Judicial Council has created a study committee to study the issue of municipal courts generally and make recommendations back to the Judicial Council; and

WHEREAS, it is advisable that the situation regarding the proliferation of municipal courts with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction not worsen while this issue is being examined; now, therefore,

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 6, Chapter 54, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new, appropriately designated section:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of the law to the contrary, the general assembly shall not, by general law, private act or amendment to a municipal charter, allow or provide for the creation of a municipal court with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction until such time as the Tennessee judicial council, having heard the report of the committee it created to examine the issue of the proliferation of municipal courts in Tennessee, has made a recommendation to the general assembly and the general assembly has had until the adjournment of the first session of the 103rd General Assembly to consider the issue. During the second session of the 103rd General Assembly, and thereafter, any legislation on the subject of municipal courts with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction may be considered and enacted.

(b) Further, there is a moratorium for the same time period on the creation of a municipal court with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction by any municipality currently authorized to create such court and that has not done so prior to January 1, 2003.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 16-17-101, is amended by adding the following as a new, appropriately designated subsection:

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section or any other provision of the law to the contrary, no municipality shall create a municipal court with concurrent general sessions court jurisdiction from the effective date of this act until such time as the Tennessee judicial council, having heard the report of the committee it created to examine the issue of the proliferation of municipal courts in Tennessee, has made a recommendation to the general assembly and the general assembly has had until the adjournment of the first session of the 103rd General Assembly to consider the issue and determine whether any legislative changes are necessary. During the second session of the 103rd General
